A Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year to All

A LETTER TO SANTY

To the Editor of The Star-- We know that your paper will reach Santa Claus wherever he is, so will you put in the following verses:

Dear Santy it's a very hard task To name all the things we want this year.

But if you'll give all that we ask

Why Santy we'll know you are dear.

Dear Santy we ask you to send A few of the following articles;

And if you can't ship all at once We'll take them in several parcels.

An automobile and a sleigh Would suit us "right up to the knocker."

As well as a big baby doll, Who would go fast asleep when you rock her.

A good pair of skates would be nice, Though the ponds are a little bit rocky;

But then, we could use the old ice

That the amateurs left after Hockey.

And please send a dollar to Pa, To pay for a twelve-month's subscription

To Wainwright's new paper-- The Star.

Or we'll certainly die of "con-niption."

Of course we want bushels of candies

For Christmas, and we'll sit and eat them,

While if you send "sodas and brandies"

Our dads can take friends in and treat them,

So, dear Santy, though we know that you get

Greatly bored by so many boys calling,

We hope you won't this year forget

Charlie Forster and Murray H. Pawling.

Martin L. Forster, proprietor of the Wainwright Hotel, intends giving a dinner to the business men of town early in the New Year. Invitations will be issued shortly.

TOWN AND TRAIL

We have received an advance copy of "Town and Trail" by Gertrude Balmer Watt. Among the many interesting articles in the book are "The Lure of the Trail," "Street Scenes," "Do You Remember?" "On the City Outskirts" and many others. The different articles are very interesting and the book is one which should have a large sale. It is published by the Saturday News company, Edmonton.

D. Pawsey, Edgerton, was in town on Wednesday.

M. L. Forster, the popular proprietor of the Wainwright hotel is giving a Christmas dinner to his boarders at seven o'clock this evening. The guests will be old boarders at the hotel exclusively and about forty will partake of "Martins" hospitality. The editor is certainly glad that he is the owner of a meal ticket as the dinner is sure to be a dandy. Beautiful souvenir menus have been prepared.

BOWLING LEAGUE HOW THEY STAND

First Game on Tuesday--Scores Wainwright has Good Lead in Bowling. Were Very Poor Alberta Hockey League

The first game in the bowling league was played on Tuesday evening on the Alberta Alleys, when the Rovers and Ramblers clashed.

There was a large crowd present when the first ball was rolled, but the very poor scores made and the big lead the rovers got in the first game, took practically all the interest away from the match.

The following are the players and scores:

Ramblers—			Has Good Team
Cordick	88	118	123	The hockey team picked by H. G. Morison to play the regular team this afternoon, will line up as follows: Goal, Jones; point, Watson; cover point, Kerr; rover, Morison; centre, Latorneau; right wing, Robinson; left wing, Culp. The team on paper looks as though it would be able to take the measure of the regulars, and the play will be fast and furious, they will not be able to do without a struggle.
Kerr	116	118	127
Jones	105	90	128
Henry	87	119	118
Rovers—			Majority for Rovers, 101 pins.
Mill, E.	101	141	131	How the Regulars Will Line-Up
Mills, A. E.	140	105	147
Cook	144	105	111
Shaver	80	97	130
	471	448	519	The Cap Challengers

The hockey match this afternoon is bound to be a hot one. The teams contesting are the regular team which took the trip east last week and one chosen by H. G. Morison. The regulars will likely line up as follows--Goal, Mussion; point, Washburn; cover point, Harpell; rover, Cummer; centre, Lally; right wing, Mills; left wing, Hopewell.

The Edmonton team has left the city for Montreal to prepare for games with the Wanderers for the cup on Dec. 28 and 30. They were given an enthusiastic send-off. The members of the team were given a dinner by the executive.

The Edmonton line-up for the Stanley cup will be picked from the following who have gone east: Lindsay, Patrick, Petrie, Ross, Miller, Whitcroft, McNamara, Phillips and Deeton.

Joe Hall has been released and left for his home at Brandon.

Edgerton Has Easy Win

The hockey match at Edgerton on Tuesday with the Ribstone took the lead from the start, scoring the first goal three minutes after the game commenced.

The score at half time was 3-1. Edgerton team made a grand stand finish scoring three goals in the last five minutes of play.

Services will be held in the Church of England on Sunday evening at the regular hour 7.30.

M. L. Forster has just received his fine Gourlay-Winter and Leeming piano, recently purchased through their local agent, Wm. Glass.

The Leap Year dance to be given by the ladies of the Quadrille club on Wednesday evening next is being looked forward to by the young men of town. The ladies promise a enjoyable evening.

The Greatest Railroad in the World

National Transcontinental is Wonderful Road--Expected Trains Will be Running From Ocean to Ocean by Autumn of 1911--Interview With Pres. Hayes

The following is part of an article which appeared in the Toronto Globe under the heading of "The Greatest Railway in the World."

President Hayes, of the National Transcontinental railway is a thorough going optimist about the future of Canada and in his latest interview gives good reasons for his hopeful forecast. The exultant tone of this remarkable pronouncement is all the more notable because Mr. Hayes has, during the whole of his management of the Grand Trunk system, been the very reverse of communicative in his relations with the public at large. His statement of what has been accomplished in the construction of the National Transcontinental railway and the contagious cheerfulness with which he faces the future will put a permanent stop to the wretched attempts of political partisans to damage the great national undertaking for the sake of injuring their political opponents. The railway that is financed jointly by the Rothschilds of London and Speys of New York can never be injured by slander, if it fails, its want of success will be due to long continued mismanagement, not to groundless and malevolent aspersions.

THE WESTERN DIVISION

"The most interesting part of Mr. Hayes' statement is that in which he deals with the character of the western division of the railway for the construction of which his own company is entirely responsible. From Winnipeg to Prince Rupert there is not a gradient steeper than 26 feet to the mile, over which a single engine can draw a train with a freight tonnage of more than 2,000. The very best that any of the other transcontinental lines can do with a single engine is to haul less than 600 tons over a grade of 116 feet to the mile. This is a startling assurance, but it is made in such terms as to preclude scepticism on the part of those who receive it.

AN EXCEEDINGLY FINE HARBOR

"No wonder Mr. Hayes ventures to predict that a large part of the wheat of the Canadian west will yet be sent to Europe by the Pacific ocean and Panama canal, to say nothing of what will go direct to the orient to supply the Chinese and Japanese with food. Mr. Hayes' Prince Rupert, in Canada, and Sydney, in Australia as the two very finest harbors in the world, and on the road to a completion.

strength of trustworthy information he feels inclined to award the palm to the Canadian terminus.

"As in reply to the senseless report that the proprietors of the Grand Trunk railway system are becoming discouraged with the magnitude and difficulty of their undertaking. Mr. Hayes announces the fact, learned from personal observation, that rapid progress is being made in the grading of the first hundred miles east of Prince Rupert. The line westward from Winnipeg is rapidly approaching the Rocky mountains, and he sees no reason to doubt that by the autumn of 1911 their first train will break through to the tide water, passing from the Atlantic to the Pacific. In other words, what will, beyond all controversy be the greatest railway in the world, will be completed within the advertised time and without the slightest financial uncertainty. Such a record is absolutely without precedent, and it is sure to greatly enhance the already high reputation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier for Statesmanship that enabled him to plan such a project and force of character that enabled him to have carbors in the world, and on the road to a completion.

Longboat Beat Dorando

In one of the greatest running races ever witnessed in the history of athletics, in Madison Square garden last week, Tom Longboat, the Canadian Indian distance runner, beat Dorando Petri in a full Marathon race. Dorando collapsed on the twenty-sixth mile and Longboat finished in two hours 45.05 2-5.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

The glad Christmas time is with us once more and expressions of good will are heard on all sides.

The Star joins in by wishing our many friends "A Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous new year."

This will be the first Christmas celebration over held in Wainwright and from all indications it will be a memorable one.

Show the spirit of the day in all your actions and it will help materially in engendering a more Christian-like feeling between us all.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Merry Christmas!

Each day brings the town nearer Edmonton.

The sound of the hammer, heard on all sides, shows that Wainwright grows despite winter weather.

The Eastern Alberta Hockey League has got away to a good start. The members of the different teams are all true sportsmen.

The Woman in the Case

Victoria Colonist: Mrs. John Bull is asserting herself with a vengeance. The stout old gentleman with the ruddy countenance, whom the cartoonists have heretofore employed to personify Great Britain, is apparently in danger of losing his job.

By Way of Contrast

Victoria Colonist: Montreal has determined upon reviving the plan for an annual ice carnival in midwinter. It is "up to" Victoria—if the reputation of Canada in the British Isles is to be sustained—to hold a flower show at a similar period of the year.

Some of the Fine Points

Ottawa Free Press: A hockey expert is having trouble in negotiating with a Montreal club because he wants it to pay the expense of his wife as well as himself from Brandon to Montreal and return. Next season hockey players will probably insist upon having a honeymoon trip ticket to Europe thrown in at the end of the season.

We're Going Somewhere

Victoria Colonist: One of the best short editorial paragraphs which has come under our notice for many a long day is the following from the Ottawa Journal: It is proposed to advertise Canada by means of moving pictures is based, of course, on the assurance that Canada will not stand long enough to have any other kind of pictures taken.

Pushing Back the Frontier

The advance of population to the far north is indicated by the establishment of a newspaper at Athabasca Landing. It is only a few years ago that the Edmonton Bulletin had the entire northern field to itself. Today there are at least five newspapers catering to the Bulletin's old territory. It will not be long until there are newspapers at Peace River crossing and Fort McMurray.—Lethbridge Herald.

A Lesson on Physical Geography

the Peace and Athabasca rivers a city of the size of Montreal. And, what is more, if the races had come across the Pacific there would not only be in the Peace river country a city of the population of Montreal, but Ontario, Quebec, and the ice-bound eastern coast would now be as sparsely populated as northern Alberta, and wise guys would now be writing up its agricultural and mineral possibilities.

And this country is undoubtedly blessed with a plentiful supply of coal, natural gas and petroleum. Of timber there is no end and the probabilities of great mineral wealth is admitted. In the Finland marshes are great beds of bog iron and the flat country of Perm supplies the iron snows of a nation.—Why not our north?

Albertans possess a rare, rich opportunity. If we will only do so, we may live the next ten years in the midst of the most wonderful industrial development ever witnessed in North America.

Practical Education

School Inspector Morgan, of Belleville, in a recent address made the statement that the Ontario public School system is too discursive and not practical enough; that pupils learn a smattering of many subjects but learn none of them well; that more thoroughness is needed. We have long imagined that something of this sort was the matter with the public school system, and of late years—since pedagogues in the service of the education department and school boards have felt free to call their souls their own—we have heard the heresy spoken now and again in their ranks. Perhaps some day that which has been heresy will be admitted by the educational powers as orthodoxy and some very necessary changes will be worked out in the public school system. Let us hope so.—Hamilton Spectator.
